About The Book: Binks' book is for children ages 3-10 interested in exploring Artificial Intelligence while having fun. With his extensive knowledge and experience in the field, Binks creates a fun activity while learning, making the book accessible to children of all backgrounds. "Bots & Bosses Artificial Intelligence Activity Book" also includes Coloring Pictures, Copy Drawing & Hand Drawing, Crossword Puzzles, Matching Lists, Word Search, Definitions, and AI Safety Tips for Children.

"Bots & Bosses Artificial Intelligence Activity Book" has already received rave reviews from industry experts and children alike. According to Binks, "I wrote the Bots & Bytes AI Activity Book because I believe learning about artificial intelligence should be as fun and engaging as it is important. AI isn't just for scientists and engineers—it's for curious minds of all ages! This book is a playful way to introduce kids (and kids at heart) to the fascinating world of robotics, coding, and AI through puzzles, coloring, and games. My hope is that it sparks creativity, inspires future innovators, and proves that technology can be both exciting and accessible. Let's make learning about AI an adventure!"
